

Allen “AJ” Jones Service Award

Named after a man who has served the Hitmen program since its inception, the Allen Jones Service Award is presented in grateful recognition for outstanding service and dedication to Quad City Hitmen Baseball.

This award recognizes the selfless attitude of a player that leads by example and inspires others to place the Hitmen program first, his team second, and himself third.

By giving of himself, the recipient of this award has earned the respect of his teammates and has helped the entire program gain the trust and support of the Quad City community.
