

Jim Epperly Sportsmanship Award

This award is in honor of Jim Epperly, a man who has dedicated himself to the development of our Quad City community and to the development of our Quad City youth.

The Sportsmanship Award recognizes one who best exemplifies the Hitmen tradition of outstanding leadership and integrity.

The recipient of this award is a great example of character, which encompasses responsibility, accountability, and cooperation toward the achievement of common goals through hard work and respect for the game.
