

RYAN MURDOCK PASSION AWARD

The Ryan Murdock Passion award is presented to one who possesses an ardent affection for the game of baseball; a value the late Ryan Murdock exemplified throughout his life.

“One person with passion makes a majority.” This is the effect Ryan Murdock had on his fellow Hitmen teams.

It is after this ideal that the recipient of the Ryan Murdock Passion award has conducted himself; with a devotion and enthusiasm that honors the game, and gives “heart” to his team.
